

FEDERAL TROOPS ARE BEING HURRIED NORTH TO TORREON

Federals Will Make Desperate Resistance When They Meet Rebels

REBELS ON WEST COAST

Rebel Troops Are Reported to Be Gathering in Great Numbers Near Mazatlan and Acapulco

VILLA'S ARMY MOVING SOUTH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Army officers here believe that by the middle of next week at the latest General Villa will have successfully transported the whole of his victorious constitutional army the full length of Chihuahua and as far south as Torreón, where the next big battle of the revolution is expected to follow. It is known that the federals are disposed to make a desperate resistance at this point which is the key to all of central Mexico north of Zacatecas and federal reinforcements are being hurried north from the capital.

On the west coast, after the temporary advantage gained by federal forces in skirmishes yesterday the rebels are reported to be gathering in great numbers in the country lying in the rear of Mazatlan and Acapulco.

President Wilson let it be known today that while in constant communication with John Lind, the latter had reported no new proposals as having been made by Jesus Flores Magón or any other person supposed to be representing Huerta.

May Go to Hermosillo.
Colliac, Sinaloa, Mex., Jan. 22.—General Carranza probably will remain here a week and then retrace his steps to Hermosillo and cross into Chihuahua by way of the Mexican towns along the American frontier.

This was the belief current here today. It is believed that Carranza's health will not permit him to make the journey over the mountains into Chihuahua by way of Durango and that his route will be by way of Hermosillo.

The expedition of General Lucio Blanco, which is destined for Guadalupe, will proceed south within a few days.

Captain Gray, formerly of the English army, will be in charge of the artillery.

Mercado in Command.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 22.—General Salvador Mercado, who commanded the Mexican federal army which was routed from Ojinaga, Mexico, today was placed in command of the camp of his interned soldiers and refugees at Fort Bliss. As a token of his continued loyalty to the government at Mexico City, General Mercado at once christened the main street of the camp "Avenida General Huerta." Although himself one of the interned refugees, who are not permitted to leave the reservation, General Mercado was selected by the United States army officials as best fitted to have personal supervision over his men.

Water pipes were laid and all the Mexicans were told that they must bathe regularly. Outdoor barber shops also were provided.

The Mexican consul in El Paso called at Fort Bliss to arrange to pay some of the back salaries of the Mexican soldiers. He at first refused to meet General Mercado but later was induced to confer with him. The Mexican officers said they had no authority to negotiate for the payment of salaries to the federals. The money said to be available for the interned soldiers is $70,000 that was taken from a federal paymaster at Marfa, Texas, who attempted to drive through to Ojinaga when told by the American border patrol to halt.

Japanese nationals will remain in Chihuahua state for the present. S. Baba, representing the Japanese government returned from a conference with General Villa today. He said every guarantee had been given that the Japanese subjects would be unmolested. Most of the Japanese in the north of Mexico are engaged in agricultural pursuits.

General Villa reported from Culhuahua that rebel money was being circulated in the interior at only a small discount from the value of Mexican silver.

One subject of General Villa's forthcoming visit to Juarez is to confer with representatives of mining and smelter interests. He is anxious to have work resumed to procure taxes on exports for the support of the rebel army.

Relying on the restoration of peace in Chihuahua by the rebels, a party of twenty Mormons prepared to return to the district of Galeana where there was a flourishing Mormon agricultural colony before the outbreak of the revolution.

MICHIGAN AGGIES WIN.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—The Michigan Agricultural College basketball team defeated the Lake Forest College team 30 to 24.

UNITED MINE WORKERS ADVOCATE LABOR PARTY

CONVENTION ADOPTS RESOLUTION ADVOCATING COMMON PARTY

No Party is Designated and no Preparations for a New Party Were Contained in the Resolution—Urge Federal Investigation of Strikes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 22.—After several hours of heated debate, the convention of United Mine Workers of America here today adopted a resolution declaring that the time had arrived, "owing to the present economic conditions and the meekness of interests at many places for laboring people to come together in a political labor party." No party was designated and no preparations for a new party were contained in the resolution.

Several Socialist delegates attempted to obtain an endorsement of their party for the laboring classes. "The Socialist party is the only party for the working people," declared William Hynes of Fayette City, Pa., "and the time now is ripe for our people to unite under the standard."

In the present condition of society even laws are no good unless backed by a strong industrial body. If the law does not suit the rich and powerful interests they have some parasite of a supreme judge with a scratch of his pen, declare the law unconstitutional.

Preston Gunnoe, of Peytonia, W. Va., said the West Virginia miners never would have been organized if it had not been for the aid of the Socialists.

Miss S. M. Franklin, of Chicago, international secretary of the Woman's Trade League, addressed the delegates this afternoon.

"It is not too late for resolutions," said Miss Franklin, "I would like for you men to endorse votes for women. Our telegrams to our representatives in congress and the legislatures demanding action on measures affecting the working people would have more effect if backed by the ballot."

Miss Franklin told of the troubles in trying to organize women.

The main trouble she said, is the fact that the girls take work only as a make-shift as their ultimate aim is to become a wife and they are not particularly interested in the labor movement.

President John P. White of the miners, urged all the district officers to wire their congressmen, urging them to vote for the resolution providing for the federal investigation of the strikes in Michigan and Colorado, as he explained the subject might be settled tonight at a caucus of the Democratic representatives.

Among the resolutions passed favorably by the convention were the following:

Paving government ownership of all public utilities, especially the coal mines; favoring the passage by congress of a law providing for old age pensions; sanctioning appropriation by the federal government of $752,000 for the bureau of mines, as recommended by Secretary of the Interior Lane, and asking congress to pass a law prohibiting railroad and street car companies collecting fares from passengers not provided with seats.

AGED BANK WATCHMAN KEPT WOULD BE YEGGMEN AT BAY

Early Morning Attempt to Rob Wemple Bros. Bank at Waverly Failed—Town Marshal Bound and Gagged—Was Box Car Prisoner For Several Hours.

At Waverly early Thursday morning five would-be yeggmens attacked Night Marshal Lythall. They dragged him to the front of Wemple Bros. bank and by means of threats compelled him to call and ask night watchman Joseph Nunley to come out. The watchman, however, declined to obey the summons and then Lythall was gagged and placed in a C. P. & St. L. box car where he remained a prisoner until about 3:45 o'clock Thursday morning when he was discovered by a brakeman.

After making Lythall a prisoner the men returned to the bank building and attempted to secure a surrender from the watchman, who is seventy-five years old. Stationed above the vault, with gun in hand, he kept silence and was ready to shoot at the first man who crossed the threshold. But nobody crossed it, at least none of the holdup men and finally one of them made so much noise by dropping a crowbar on the concrete sidewalk that citizens were awakened.

Shortly afterward some of them came to the square to find the cause of the noise and then they learned of the attempted bank robbery. It was not until a couple of hours later that the whereabouts of the night watchman was discovered. Meanwhile the yeggmens escaped on a handcar or a freight train.

Sheriff Rogers and the police department here were notified to look out for suspicious characters and warnings were also sent to Springfield and other cities.

ISSUES BANK PERMIT.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—A permit was issued today by Auditor of Public Accounts James J. Brady to John E. Van Natta, I. W. Duffee and W. A. Miller to organize the Jefferson Trust & Savings Bank at Park Ridge, Cook County, with a capital stock of $25,000.

RECOMMENDS SYSTEM OF FEDERAL LEVEES

COMMISSION EXAMINING UPPER MISSISSIPPI MAKES REPORT

Report of the Commission is Generally Approved by the War Department—Report Recommends Appropriations of $190,000 to Improve Navigation and for Flood Protection.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Results of an examination of the Upper Mississippi river from Cape Girardeau, Mo., to Rock Island, Illinois, with a view to improvements in navigation water power and flood protection was submitted to congress by the war department today on report from the Mississippi river commission. The department approved generally the commission's report and said that while the federal government has been improving navigation of the upper river people living along the banks have built levees most of which are deficient and inadequate to control the great floods. The commission reported that a further development of water department in the Mississippi from Cape Girardeau to Rock Island is not commercially feasible, that the low water navigation of the river can be improved under projects already legislated for and that millions of dollars worth of property adjacent to the river can be saved from flood damage by a system of federal levees. For these levees the commission recommended appropriations of $190,000 and $60,000; $60,000 from the head of the Shanteau Island to Prairie Du Pont, Ill.; $30,000 from Lagrange to the mouth of the Missouri river; $20,000 from Muscatine to Port Louis, Iowa; and $10,000 from Grand Tower to near Thebes.

The only levy on the upper river where power structures could be economically built the report said is at Keokuk, Iowa, now occupied by a private company.

CITY SCHOOLS MAY HAVE VISITING NURSE

Movement on Foot for Anti-Tuberculosis Society and Board of Education To Employ Nurse Jointly—Physicians May Hold Examinations at Various Schools.

As an aftermath of the action of City Health Warden, Allen M. King, in compelling all pupils to obtain health certificates, to prevent the spread of contagious diseases, a movement is on foot to have all physicians of the city visit the public schools next Monday and there have the examinations, instead as heretofore of having the pupils go to the Anti-Tuberculosis society, which health has been without a visiting nurse for several months. It is thought of getting a nurse from Chicago and one of experience. For some time the Anti-Tuberculosis society has felt that they could not employ a nurse, but in connection with the high school, such a plan could be carried out and there would be a broader field in which to work.

It is understood that there is to be a special meeting of the board of education this evening when these matters will be presented and other items of important business transacted by the board.

Final Action on the Alaskan

Final action on the Alaskan railway bill by the senate was deferred until tomorrow after the extended debate on the measure had been concluded late today and voting on amendments begun. Instead of adjourning the senate recessed until noon tomorrow under an agreement that the vote on the Alaskan measure should be taken on the legislative day of January 22.

Four Bills Made Public.

Four of the proposed bills to supplement the Sherman anti-trust act, suggested by President Wilson in his recent message to congress, were made public tonight, one of them—the measure to create an inter-state trade commission—having been introduced during the day in the house by Representative Clayton chairman of the judiciary committee.

Three other measures prepared by the house judiciary sub-committee, for submission and condition by the full committee were given to the public in accordance with the president's program of publicity. Hearings will be held on all of them.

PETITIONS DISMISSED.

Cairo, Ill., Jan. 22.—The petition contesting the local option election by which Thebes, Ill., became a "dry" last November today was dismissed by Judge W. S. Dewey. The election was contested on ground that the women's votes were cast illegally.

Judge Dewey declared constitutional the law giving women the right to vote.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S CONGRESS MESSAGE BEARS FIRST FRUIT

Bill to Create an Inter-State Trade Committee Introduced in the House

BILL BLOCKED IN SENATE

Effort to Introduce Bill in Senate Is Blocked by Sen. Smoot Owing to Alaskan Bill Debate

EXPECTS PROMPT ACTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—President Wilson's message to congress suggests anti-trust legislation supplemental to the Sherman law, which would eradicate evils of big business and at the same time free commerce and commercial activity from its first fruit today when a bill to create an inter-state trade committee was introduced in the house.

Following a conference between Attorney General McReynolds, Senator Newlands of the inter-state commerce committee, Representative Clayton, chairman and other members of the judiciary sub-committee, Mr. Clayton submitted the measure and it was referred to the inter-state foreign commerce committee.

An effort by Senator Newlands to introduce the bill simultaneously in the senate was blocked by Senator Smoot, owing to debate on the Alaska railroad bill.

Expects Action Soon.

President Wilson expects action by congress during the present session on all the various bills being prepared by the congressional committee to deal with the trust question.

He told callers today he regarded the proposed bills as reasonably homogeneous and that he had ever reason to expect prompt action.

The president reiterated his desire that the business men of the country should be given a full opportunity in public hearings to express their views and criticisms on the measure as framed.

While the president recommended in his message the supervision by the inter-state commerce commission of the issuance of railroad stocks and bonds, he took occasion today to emphasize that this did not mean necessarily that past issues of securities would be inquired into or affected by the present legislation. Nor did the president consider that the regulation of railway securities has anything to do with the subject of regulating stock exchanges.

Final action on this subject, he explained, was not recommended by the measure and he did not feel that he should recommend anything that had not been included in the platform.

The committee proposed by the bill introduced today which would absorb the bureau of corporations and which would have as its first chairman the commissioner of corporations—in this case Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin—would consist of five members, salaried at $10,000 and would have powers of inquiry over all corporations save common carriers which are regulated by the inter-state commerce commission.

Final Action Deferred.

Final action on the Alaskan railway bill by the senate was deferred until tomorrow after the extended debate on the measure had been concluded late today and voting on amendments begun. Instead of adjourning the senate recessed until noon tomorrow under an agreement that the vote on the Alaskan measure should be taken on the legislative day of January 22.

URGES IMPROVEMENT OF NATURAL WATERWAY

SENATOR TOWNSEND ADDRESSES MEMBERS OF LAKE CARRIERS' ASS'N

Asserts That If Waterway Course From Head of the Great Lakes to the Gulf of the St. Lawrence Was Improved to Enable Ocean Going Vessels to Reach Lake Ports the Volume of Commerce on the Great Lakes Would Increase Ten-fold.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 22.—United States Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan, told the members of the Lake Carriers' association at their annual banquet here tonight that the annual volume of commerce on the great lakes would be ten times as great "as the most optimistic estimate" of annual commerce through the Panama, if the natural waterway course from the head of the lakes to the Gulf of St. Lawrence were sufficiently improved to enable ocean-going vessels to reach lake ports.

Senator Townsend discussed at length the waterway plan which he has advocated in speeches in congress and in addresses outside of Washington. He predicted the marine improvement, costing many millions of dollars, eventually would be made, "either by Canada alone or by the United States and Canada," but urged co-operation by the two countries.

"There are three possible obstacles to overcome," said Mr. Townsend. "They are the railroads, international complications and the cost."

"It is a strange fact that certain railroad interests seem to have opposed practically every great proposition to improve water transportation facilities. I say 'strange' for history has demonstrated over and over again that improved waterways have increased traffic not only on the water improvement but also on the competing railroads."

"The great practical question which will confront this project will be its cost. The United States has shown that to improve all the waters of the great lakes from their heads at Buffalo, so as to accommodate boats drawing 25 feet of water would cost $25,938,367. Increase the amount three fold and we would have more than the cost of a 35-foot channel. Already the Canadian government has provided, by way of appropriation or authorization for $50,000,000 to be expended upon enlarging the Well and Canal to accommodate vessels of 30 foot draft and has wisely provided such improvement shall be made with a view to ultimate enlargement to 35 foot depth."

Discussing the probable cost of improving the waterway from Lake Ontario to Montreal, Senator Townsend said he had no means of estimating the cost but declared he did not believe it would cost $150,000,000.

"Whatever the cost is, it can be recouped in power value," he added, asserting that an improved waterway would mean greater potential energy and the water power developed as a consequence if sold, could bring a revenue of several million dollars a year.

TRINIDAD PARADE RESULTS IN RIOT

TROUBLE FOLLOWS PARADE OF STRIKERS' WIVES AND CHILDREN

Mob of Strikers and Strike Sympathizers Attempts to March to Hospital Where "Mother" Jones is Detained—Militia Finally Succeeds in Clearing Streets.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Jan. 22.—Twenty or more persons including eight women, are under arrest and at least five are known to be suffering from slight injuries as the result of a street riot which took place here this afternoon when the militia, under command of General John Chase, broke up a mob of strikers and strike sympathizers which was attempting to march to San Rafael hospital where "Mother" Jones is detained.

Stones, bottles and bricks were hurled at the militiamen by a crowd of angry women who precipitated the outbreak when they were ordered to turn back by the soldiers. Several soldiers including Major H. M. Randolph were assaulted and not until the cavalrymen with drawn sabres had charged the crowd several times was the mob dispersed. One soldier sustained a broken rib when his horse fell and one of the rioters received a cut from a sabre. The riot came after a parade of wives and children of the striking coal miners, which had been carefully planned by the union leaders. Permission to carry the plans out had been granted by General Chase with the understanding that no effort would be made to march to the hospital. Only one shot was fired during the demonstration—a soldier's rifle was discharged when it fell from his hands to the pavement. About an hour was occupied in clearing the streets. Large details of soldiers were policing the streets to night and all saloons were closed.

Discovers Infernal Machine.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 22.—A harmless looking suit-case found this afternoon by Under-sheriff Harris in a clump of underbrush near the power plant of the Ampeck mine in Keweenaw county, contained an infernal machine, according to reports received here tonight.

Attached to one end of a small board, according to the report was a can partly filled with nitro-glycerine. On the other end was fastened an alarm clock and dry battery connected by wires with the can. The wires were so arranged it is said, that the ringing of the alarm would set off the explosive. The clock was not running when the officer opened the suit case. The Ampeck mine is one of the so-called Calumet and Hecla subsidiaries. A large number of men have been imported recently to work in this mine which is among those affected by the copper miners strike.

INVESTIGATION OF SULZER'S STORY TO BE MADE BY GRAND JURY

Former Governor Repeats Whole Story of Alleged Dealings With Murphy

OFFERED TO CALL TRIAL

Claims Tammany Chief Offered to Call Off His Trial If He'd Give Up Graft Investigations

MURPHY WILLING TO TESTIFY

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A grand jury investigation was begun today into the story told under oath yesterday by William Sulzer that Charles F. Murphy sent a messenger to him during the trial of the impeachment charges against him as governor and offered to call off the trial if Sulzer would quit his graft investigation into state departments.

Sulzer today repeated before the grand jury the whole story of his alleged dealings with the Tammany chief and it was made known by District Attorney Whitman that this part of it and relating to the alleged attempt of James E. Gaffney, Murphy's business and political associate to exact a political contribution of $100,000 from James C. Stewart, a state highway contractor, would be made the subject of a two-fold inquiry.

Mr. Whitman said Murphy would be called as a witness in the John Doe inquiry by means of which the district attorney has frequently adduced evidence for presentation to the grand jury.

To Hear Murphy and O'Gorman.

Murphy today denounced Sulzer's story as false and said he was willing to testify and would waive immunity.

The district attorney also said United States Senator O'Gorman, who Sulzer testified, told him that Gaffney was "Murphy's chief 'bag-man'" and had "held Stewart up," also would be called.

Sulzer testified yesterday that while the trial of his impeachment was in progress Murphy had sent word "again and again that if I'd quit, he'd quit and that Senators Frawley, Wagner, Ramsperger and Sanner would quit."

The messenger he said, was John H. Delaney. Sulzer is understood to have explained before the grand jury today that this alleged bargain meant that the four senators would vote against his impeachment and that these four negative votes would have been enough to prevent the two-third majority of the senate required for verdict against him. The deposed governor was before the jury for nearly two hours and will be called again at a later date.

He was to have been recalled as a witness at the John Doe inquiry tomorrow, but it is understood tonight that until some evidence arrives no more witnesses will be called in the case, either at the John Doe inquiry or before the grand jury.

"It also was learned that the district attorney plans to obtain testimony from certain other witnesses before calling either Murphy or Senator O'Gorman. Two employees of Stewart preceded Sulzer before the jury today.

CONCORD ELECTION IS HELD INVALID

Law Says That Question of Commission Form of Government Must Be Voted On At the Same Time as Organization.

Sometime ago the town of Concord held an election for the purpose of incorporating and recently held an election of officers. Through the town's attorney, J. P. Lippincott, of this city, it has been learned that the action of the citizens is void because the commission form of government law says that the question of form of government must be voted on at the same time the organization is voted on. The law in the matter says: "Paragraph 57. Any town or village or city, having a special charter or any area of contiguous territory not exceeding two square miles which shall have resident thereon a population of at least 300 inhabitants and which is not included in the limits of any incorporated town, village or city, which may take steps to organize as a village or city under the act to which this is an amendment, in addition to its annual meeting, shall in addition to its annual meeting, shall also vote at the same election upon the question of adopting this Act and shall have printed in the same ballot a proposition in the following form: 'Shall the city (or village, as the case may be) of (here insert the name of such city or village) adopt the commission form of municipal government?' Yes. No."

The time for the new election has been set for January 30.

DRAMA LEAGUE HELD ANNUAL MEETING

REPORTS FOR THE PAST YEAR SHOW GROWTH.

New Officers of the Jacksonville Center Chosen—Mrs. A. Starr Best Coming February 4th—Mrs. Frank J. Heint Outlined Work of the Play Committee—Some Great Attractions Promised.

Mrs. A. Starr Best, of Evanston, president of the Drama League of America, will address the Jacksonville center Wednesday, Feb. 4, according to the announcement of Mrs. David Reid, president of the Jacksonville branch of the league, at the annual meeting Thursday evening at the public library. A social meeting of the league will be held in connection with the address by Mrs. Best. At the meeting last evening interesting reports were given by the secretary and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Mrs. John R. Robertson, the treasurer, reported a balance of $37.90. Miss Mary Johnston of the Woman's college, read the report of the Educational committee, in the absence of the regular chairman, Miss Stella Cole. Miss Johnston spoke of the effort made by the chairman to secure literature and information and of the educational work of the league in general. She mentioned the course of lectures last spring at the public library and expressed the hope that a similar course can be given this year in connection with the drama league plays. The report of the play committee, which summarizes the principle activities for the past year, was read by Mrs. Frank J. Heint.

The officers elected were:
President—Mrs. David Reid.
First vice-president—Hon. Thomas Worthington.
Second vice-president—Miss Editha Parsons.
Secretary—Prof. John Griffith Ames.
Treasurer—Mrs. John R. Robertson.

"This has been a year of organization, of gaining information and of building off effective work in the future. It has been slow—this process of studying conditions and of finding ourselves—for league work in a night stand is in its infancy and Jacksonville is the smallest center."

What Constitutes a Good Play.
"Perhaps the question most frequently asked of the play committee during the year has been 'What plays does the Drama League approve?' 'What is your idea of a good play?' A good play, whether it be tragedy, comedy, farce or melodrama, is the best of its type. That it must be alive, dramatic and entertaining is implicit in the term 'good play.' And the means by which the Drama League delivers the right audience to the right play is the bulletin. This bulletin is not an individual opinion, but a consensus of varied opinions furnished by the scholar, the business man, the dramatic expert and the mere lover of the theatre. The play bulletin is the best source for obtaining reliable and unbiased information concerning plays since it is in no sense commercial. Ours is a non-producing center, that is, we do not originate bulletins, for only the large centres, such as New York, Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Washington, D. C., issue bulletins. But our committee is in receipt of all bulletins issued in the various centres. In the past the large centres have aimed to bulletin only plays which measured up to a high standard of excellence; but they have included in the range of their criticism the four main divisions of the drama—tragedy, comedy, farce, melodrama—and each has been measured according to its type. Thus the bulletin for a light and amusing farce may read immediately upon the heels of one for a poetic tragedy, and those who do not realize that the aim is to call attention to good examples of the smaller as well as the larger forms have been puzzled. The bulletins are not written for the scholarly few, nor for any highly cultivated set. They are for the public in general, precisely as the newspapers are, but with a different motive and intent.

A Constructive Policy.

"The policy of our play committee has been constructive. We have tried to 'build up,' never to knock, and to make ourselves felt as a real help to the local management. To do effective work a league must make itself felt in dollars and cents as well as sympathetic consideration of any play. Our aim has been twofold to lend organized support to any play for which bulletins have been previously issued and to support the best of those we do get if worthily presented. Obviously the committee must discriminate between road companies and I know of nothing more baffling or elusive. The producing firms are themselves secretive. They desire all road companies to be considered equal in good. One cannot then secure unbiased information from them regarding any cast. Of only a few producing firms can it be said that the name is a guarantee. Any number of road companies may play a given production, the number of companies varying in proportion to the popularity of the play from two on up. Frequently there are four, rarely of equal merit. Eastern, Southern Central, Western. At one time, during the present season, there were fifteen companies playing 'Within the Law.' The Dramatic Mirror lists nine companies this week. One can readily see some of the difficulties of getting information concerning any one of the minor companies. A bulletined play, a drama of high excellence, a delightful comedy, or an entertaining farce, is one thing played by a competent cast and something totally different in the hands of a poor one. The interpretation may be so changed that the real significance of the play is lost. The matter of company is then of supreme importance in the night-stand whereas in the large centres a good company is taken for granted. Our committee has spent much time during the year seeking to get information concerning casts in advance of local bookings. In the few months we have been organized (we were organized late in the season last year) we have given our official endorsement to the following plays booked through the regular channels: 'Trail of the Lonesome Pine,' 'Officer 666,' 'Our Wives,' with Henry Kolker in the cast, 'In Old Dublin,' with Fiske O'Hara in the cast, 'Stop Thief,' with John Findley and Charles Brown in the cast.

Information Difficult to Get.

"Our comments, intended to increase attendance, have been printed in the daily papers. For the Coburn players, booked by the Classical Club, announcements (printed at the expense of the Classical Club) were written by the committee and sent to our mailing list. Twice we were disappointed in productions and twice would be glad to have given our commendation had we been able to get the desired information in advance. 'The Little Rebel' (3rd A. H. Woods Co., played last Feb.) and 'Little Women' (in Dec.) were played by competent and well-balanced casts. As soon as chains of leagues are established in the neighboring cities as they will be within a few months (Dedart, Springfield, are now forming) the desired information can be passed from one centre to another in advance of bookings. "An incident illustrating the working of this plan, occurred this season. Several days before the date of 'In Old Dublin,' a letter came from the play committee of Green Bay, another night stand centre, stating that they would gladly have endorsed the 'In Old Dublin' had they known about it in advance. Our attitude was determined by this letter.

Guaranteeing Receipts.
"The problem of securing better attractions for the night stands has long agitated theatre-goers. Now the slogan has gone out, 'License the Theatre,' that is, guarantee an audience in advance. The responsibility of the public in assuming its fair share on the business side through support has long been recognized in the lecture field and in the musical, why not in the theatrical? No manager can be expected to book high priced attractions and face a deficit afterwards. Nor should earnest gifted actors be expected to take the risk of loss every time they play a night stand. "Time when a company costing say $500 a day would take the risk of playing a night stand without other security than faith in its reputation and its advance agent." But that day is past. The experience of Mr. Donald Robertson this season speaks eloquently of conditions in the night stand. With an excellent cast and artistic production of Moliere's 'Learned Ladies,' he played ten night stands this season and lost on the average of $300 per night.

In a letter explaining the reasons of cancelling his date in Jacksonville Thanksgiving night, Mr. Robertson said: 'I think the Drama League or some such body must ere long assume responsibility if it would have real works of art visit the night stands. Actors should not be asked to gamble for their existence and as the syndicates are running the theatres simply for the money there is in it, until the leaders of public taste in a community assume the responsibility I for one can see little hope of any permanent headway.' In speaking of his new plan for securing better attractions in the night stands, Mr. Charlton Andrews says: 'The quality of the attractions is practically guaranteed. The national league committee not only knows what is worth while in the drama today, but can also judge in advance as to the quality of the acting. There is no antagonism in the scheme to any worthy enterprise; the play-goers are co-operating with both the producers and the local managers. And, furthermore, this is in no sense a money-making scheme; it is what it purports to be, pure and simple—an endeavor on the part of a great organized body of drama lovers to promote the best, that that great democratic art can produce in our day.'

Fine Attractions Coming.

"Early in July Jacksonville was asked to co-operate with the national committee in an effort to secure a few fine attractions for the night stands by offering a definite pledge of attendance in advance upon a given number of selected plays. For this first season we decided to work for three and were promised three fine attractions provided we secured for each a guarantee of $500. The committee set two weeks as the time limit for the canvassing and by August first were able to report $1600 in signed pledge and our guarantees assured. Three notable bookings have been promised us as follows: Feb. 24th, The English Repertory Company which has been playing at the Fine Arts Theatre, Chicago, with such marked success since November March 20th, The Irish Players which are soon to come over to this country for their American tour, and George Arliss in 'Disraeli.' Not one of these three attractions has ever played in the night stands and would not except for the guarantee which have been raised in the different small Drama League centres. Since the Repertory Co. will be the first attraction it is fitting to say a word about that in this report. Mr. B. Iden Payne, its director and manager was stage director for the Abbey Theatre, Dublin, then the organizer and for five years director of Miss Horniman's Manchester Repertory Co. Mr. Payne has also done considerable work in England with his own companies and is generally recognized as one of the most advanced and skillful of the modern English state directors. The leading lady is his wife, Miss Mona Limerick, who though born in India is of Irish origin on both sides of her family. Miss Limerick was leading lady for the Manchester players, has created many leading parts for Bernard Shaw in London and is an actress of established reputation. Others in the company are Miss Maude Leslie, Mr. Walter Hampden, well known for his interpretation of 'Manson,' Miss Louise Randolph, Mr. Whitford Kane of last season's 'Hindle Wakes' and who created the role in London in Galsworthy's 'Pigeon,' Dallas Anderson, formerly leading man for Marie Tempest and Maude Adams, etc., Miss Frances Waring and that rare comedian, C. H. H. Burke. They will play either one of two double bills: 'The Whispering Will' by H. R. Rose, with 'Press Clippings' by Bernard Shaw or 'Dolly Reforming Herself' by Henry Arthur Jones with 'Lonesome Like' by Harold Brighouse. The Repertory Company is an unusual group of actors, their ensemble work is of the highest grade and their plays both as to acting and production will be a rare treat.

"In closing this report I wish to express my appreciation of the loyal support of this committee which has made possible all that has been accomplished, and to Manager Hunt, our appreciation for his cordial cooperation during the year.

is like any other purchase—it does not pay to skimp quality. There is no satisfaction in owning an inferior suit of clothes—no pride of possession. You know, and so does any one else familiar with clothes, that it possesses no marks of individuality.

Quality demands a fair purchase price. When a suit or overcoat is offered at a ridiculously low price, you may be assured that they are not clothes you would care to own; that however absurd the sum you pay, you are not receiving fair value for it.

CITY WILL BAR LIQUOR FROM VARIOUS LODGE HEADQUARTERS

Notification Sent Yesterday to Orders By City Attorney—Draymen Who Haul Liquor Will Be Arrested—Warrant Issued Against Burlington Agent.

The liquor ordinance which was adopted by the City Council December 3rd, is believed by City Attorney Thompson and the police department to be applicable to lodges. It is generally understood that the Elks, Eagles, Owls and Moose lodges occasionally serve beer in their halls and yesterday City Attorney Thompson addressed letters to these lodges as well as to every other fraternal organization in the city. The city attorney's letter follows:

"Gentlemen:—The lodges or fraternal organizations within the City of Jacksonville which serve beer or alcoholic liquors as refreshments after the general meetings of such organizations, are hereby notified that it is unlawful to serve any alcoholic liquors as refreshment in any lodge room within the City of Jacksonville. Such lodges or fraternal organizations who are violating or continue to violate the city ordinances in reference to the use of liquor shall be prosecuted."

Several of the lodges have already signified to the city attorney their intention of at once complying with the order and the others may do likewise. The lodges which serve beer are understood to have some of the liquor in storage and the plan will be to arrest the draymen if they attempt to haul the kegs or cases to the lodge rooms.

People Want Dry City. In talking about the order last night Mr. Thompson said: "The purpose of the local option law is to have Jacksonville dry. The purpose of the rigid anti-liquor ordinance adopted by the city council something over a year ago is to keep Jacksonville dry. The same statement will apply to the ordinance passed by the city council December 3rd. It therefore seems to be my plain duty and it is the wish of the police department that the city proceed to have anti-liquor ordinances enforced as rigidly as possible. Acting on this policy I have sent notices to all of the lodges in the city. Some of them are known to serve beer after their regular business sessions. It has seemed to be the only proper course to notify them all, although I am aware that the constitutions of some lodges bar all liquor from the lodge rooms."

Draymen Common Carriers. "Under the last ordinance adopted by the city, draymen or others who may haul liquor into the city are classed as common carriers along with railroads or express companies and I have so notified them in order that none of these men shall unwittingly subject themselves to arrest. It is fair to assume that arrests will be made and the law tested out. In most of such instances my intention is to institute civil action and to take the cases directly to the circuit court rather than to try them first in justice courts and then let to the higher court on appeal."

Warrant For "Q" Agent. Chief of Police Davis yesterday swore out a warrant against E. P. Mitchell agent of the Burlington railroad charging him with receiving shipments of liquor from Arenzville and Beardstown contrary to the provisions of the ordinance adopted by the city council Dec. 3rd. The warrant will be served this morning and the hearing will be had in Squire Dyer's court. Then unquestionably an appeal will be taken to the circuit court. At that time the city can compel the road to produce its books in court and if the law is held good then the city can collect a fine of $50 for each and every offense committed after January ninth, the date on which the law went into effect. The attention of the city officials will for the present be directed against those persons or companies violating the provision against shipments from points within the state rather than those engaged in interstate business.

PRINCE OF HOTEL CLERKS.

At the recent convention of the Illinois Hotel Clerk's association, held at Rock Island, Major John A. Vickery, clerk at the Dunlap Hotel, read a paper regarding his 33 years of service as clerk at the Dunlap. In this article the Major pays a high compliment to the commercial men and closes his paper by alluding to them as the "Princes of Good Fellows."

I feel sure I voice not only the sentiment of all the resident commercial men but also of the many thousand scattered over the United States who have had the pleasure of meeting and knowing the major as chief clerk at the Dunlap Hotel in the past 33 years, that he is the "Prince of Hotel Clerks," one who is always a gentleman, kind and obliging and who tries in every way to make your hotel life as near like home as possible. THE LIGHT

ETERNAL TONIGHT

In the company presenting The Light Eternal—the big spectacular drama to be seen at the Grand tonight—a good illustration of this task is had. To secure capable actors, physically fitted for the principal roles, required a careful overhauling of almost the entire thespian population of New York City. Over a hundred reputable and capable leading men were "interviewed" before a desirable one was found in John Milton, who will be seen here in the leading male role. As the company now stands it contains six men, whose average age is twenty-six years, height six feet, and weight one hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Referring to Mr. Milton, his fine physique makes him an imposing hero, and he plays the role of Marco Valerius, the young Christian martyr, with reverence that commands respect. Mr. Milton has undergone a fine apprenticeship in the classics. He was for four years in principal roles with Thomas Keene.

THIS BANK— REAL BANKING SERVICE—

Real Banking Service is more than a matter of dollars and cents—more than a matter of principal and interest.

Real Banking Service is based on human interest and principles.

A man or woman, boy or girl starts an account—this at first only represents so much money.

As time goes on the depositor learns that this bank means more to him than merely a place to put his money. He acquires the banking habit, gets acquainted with the bank officials and forms a bank relationship—more than merely an acquaintance.

He becomes known at the bank. In time business or professional opportunities come. He needs advice or help. He comes to this bank for it. The advice he receives is dependable and is cheerfully given.

He finds that character, personality, individuality—call it what you may—is a real business asset—one that he can bank on—one that is a great help to him in his business affairs.

Later he has us draw his will, makes us his executor, knowing that our charges are moderate, that in case of his death his estate will be handled by men who know how and that his wishes will be carried out promptly, economically and safely.

For this is his bank. The bank knows him—helps and advises him on matters financial, just as his doctor and lawyer advise him on matters of health and law.

To get the best out of your bank, select it now for its character, strength and service. Then stay with it and grow with it.—THIS BANK

INVINCIBLES HELD BANQUET AT NORTHMINSTER CHURCH

Men's Bible Class of One Hundred Members Observed Important Anniversary—An Excellent Program.

The fifth annual or anniversary banquet of the "Invincible" or men's bible class of Northminster church was held in the community rooms of the church last evening and was a grand success. It was indeed fine to see a bible class of men, mostly young with a few older ones mingled with them, numbering over 100 and with such good spirit and it is a source of regret that the lateness of the hour prevents the extended notice the affair deserves.

The tables were set in the community room and were decorated in a very unique manner. Running the whole length right in the middle of the tables was a miniature stake and rider rail fence on which snow had fallen while in front of toastmaster was a small inclosure surrounding a tiny house whose roof and doorway were also covered with the "beautiful." Wax candles also added a charm to the scene and all was attractive.

The menu was prepared by ladies of the church and was excellent and this was the unanimous verdict of all present. At the close of the edible part of the program the teacher, Rev. Walter L. Spoonst, took his place as toastmaster and most capably performed his duties, his brief introductions sparkling with wit and pleasing every one there. Miss Esther Spoonst acted as accompanist to the first vocal number and Miss Celene Vieira to the other. The recitation of Miss Spoonst was a thrilling selection, Mrs. Mary Ridgeling's night ride, the tale of a woman who went through the lines to seek her sick husband.

Vocal numbers of the Misses Baptist and Smith were especially fine. Mrs. Ferreira proved herself a thorough musician at the piano and won applause. The addresses of Messrs. E. M. and H. H. Vasconcellos, Messrs. Hastings and Gomes, were especially good. All breathed a splendid spirit.

It was almost twelve when all rose and voted thanks to the ladies and sang "Blest be the time that binds."

The officers of the class are: President—J. Earl Vasconcellos. Vice president—Charles Reinhardt. Secretary—John W. Baptist. Treasurer—Charles Patterson.

The following was the program: Piano solo—Mrs. Grace Frank Ferreira.

"An Organized Class"—E. M. Vasconcellos.

"An Invincible Missionary"—Jesse R. Hastings.

"Vocal Solo"—Virginia Baptist.

"My Relation to the Invincibles"—S. W. Nichols.

"Reading"—Esther Spoonst.

"O"—Joseph Gomez.

"Vocal Solo"—Carolyn Smith.

"The Invincibles"—H. H. Vasconcellos.

"Blest Be The Tie That Binds"—Invincibles.

MOVEMENTS IN BASKETBALL CIRCLES

IMPORTANT GAMES WILL BE PLAYED TODAY.

Augustana College Strong Contender Among Northern Teams—Impossible to Pick Winners For Final Tournament This Early in Season.

Today's Games.
Millikin at Illinois Wesleyan.
Bradley Poly at Williams and Vashli.
Hedding at Normal university.
Bradley at Augustana.

Illinois Wesleyan of Bloomington and Augustana college of Rock Island, the new member of the Illinois Inter-collegiate association, hold the honors to date among the fifteen colleges out for the basketball championship. Wesleyan has won four games by decisive scores and lost none, while Augustana has a clean slate with two games played. Its victory last week over Williams and Vashli by a score of 43 to 11 marks it as a most dangerous opponent and one that may surprise the old members in the coming tournament March 6 and 7 at Peoria.

Even at this early date it seems possible to name the eight teams which will go into the final tournament at Bloomington March 13 and 14. Normal, Bradley, Augustana and Hedding are expected to win out in the northern district, eliminating Lombard, Eureka, Williams and Vashli and Carthage. Of the seven schools in the southern half, the tournament for which will be played at Decatur at the same time of the Peoria tourney, Millikin, Wesleyan, Lincoln and McKendree are expected to eliminate Shurtliff, Charleston Normal and Illinois college. Illinois college may improve greatly in the next several weeks and stand high in the tournament. There is no question but that the Jacksonville team has excellent material.

Eureka Has Weak Team.
Eureka seems to have as weak a team in basketball as it had in football, practically no team at all. Carthage is in the same class and as these two colleges seemed to have made no effort the past year or two to develop good teams it is strange that they are retained in the conference.

Wesleyan's victory, 39 to 11, over Illinois college last week must not be taken as an indication of the Jacksonville team's strength. That game was played with four substitutes in the Illinois lineup, four regulars being ineligible. Coach Lantz may develop a good team at Charleston but as long as he plays outsiders mostly high schools, it is impossible to tell how strong his five is going to prove in the tournament. Charleston defeated Southern Illinois Normal, 36 to 10, last Friday night, but Carbondale has never been noted for its athletes.

Tough Sledding For Lincoln.
Lincoln had tough sledding last week, winning one game and dropping two. Through a mistake, three games were scheduled, and with Taylor, star guard, crippled, was an easy victim for Bradley and Wesleyan. Bradley got revenge for its defeat on Lincoln's floor by one point, trouncing the Lincoln team by a score of 41 to 12. Hedding, however, lost to Lincoln, 37 to 22, but on Lincoln's small floor.

Normal university sprung a surprise last week when Millikin was walloped so decisively, 27 to 13. The result, however, is not worrying Coach Jimmy Ashmore, as the difference in the score does not represent the difference in the teams and the normal team was right and Millikin had an off night. Millikin's previous victory over Illinois college by a 45 to 12 score, a score more one-sided than Wesleyan was able to make against Illinois' second team, and the fact that Wesleyan trounced Normal recently, places the Millikin team in the same class with Wesleyan and Normal.

Wesleyan and Normal at Home.
One thing that can be determined at this early date, and one only, is that there are going to be eight mighty class teams in the final tournament. Whether the champion is going to be Wesleyan, Normal, Millikin, Bradley, Lincoln or Augustana, no one but the rabid partisans of each team will dare to wager. It must be granted, however, that Wesleyan and Normal have the advantage over the other teams since the tournament will be held on the Bloomington Y. M. C. A. floor with which both are familiar.

The game tonight between Millikin and Wesleyan will go far to determine the strength of these teams. Wesleyan is picked to win by a small score by neutral fans but Millikin in primed for a hard battle. Bradley should have no trouble defeating W. & V., while Normal is expected to win from Hedding by a large score. The game that means the most to the "dope" artists is the one Saturday night at Rock Island between Bradley Polytechnic and Augustana. The result will show whether the Swedes possess the strength they are credited with.

McKendree's strength in relation to the other teams was determined by its victory Monday over Hedding, winning 27 to 24. As the Hedding team is right up among the leaders McKendree can be counted upon to show well in the Decatur tournament.

BIG CONTEST ON AMONG HIGH SCHOOLS

RIVALRY KEEN FOR TODAY'S GAMES.

Basketball Aspirants Find Scores Small Among Leaders—Jacksonville Plays Springfield Tonight—Decatur Gets Final Tourney.

Today's Games.
Taylorville at Decatur.
Monmouth at Galesburg.
Jacksonville at Springfield.
University High at Lexington.
Leroy at Clinton.
Pontiac at Normal.
Bloomington at Peoria Manual.
Pittsfield at Bluffs.
Carbondale at Murphysboro.

Saturday's Games.
Decatur at Peoria Central.
Monmouth at Alledo.
Joliet at Chicago Heights.

Real upsets featured last week's basketball games among Illinois high school leaders. Prominent was the defeat of the strong Peoria Central team by Bloomington; the victories of Decatur and University High over Peoria Manual; the trouncing of Galesburg by Allding; the loss of Charleston to Paris and Shelbyville's victory by one point over Hillsboro.

In only one case was there a difference of more than four points between the winner and the loser and about two points was the average. All of this goes to show that the woods are full of first class basketball teams and that the winners of the various district tournaments are going to have to earn their laurels. From Rockford in the north to Cairo at the jumping off place there are several dozens of teams whose backers are boosting them for high honors in one of the eight district tournaments, and already in some cases they are picking a place to light in the final tournament.

Final Tournament in Decatur.
The final tournament will be held in Decatur. Decatur has three fine gymnasiums, high school, Y. M. C. A., and Millikin university, and no state tournament and only a district college tournament. It is centrally located and has taken care of previous state tourneys ideally.

University High of Normal's victory over Peoria Manual, 34 to 19, was really unexpected. Accomplished by a much larger score than was either Decatur or Galesburg able to make, it places University High right at the top among the class A teams of the state. Coach Miller's team ought to be a winner. It is recruited from players from all over the state who go to Normal to get their preparatory work for the Teacher's college of which the high school is an auxiliary. University High has benefit of practicing daily against the strong Normal University team too, a great advantage over all but a few other teams.

Bloomington's Undeclared.
Bloomington High continued its unbroken string of victories and gave Peoria Central its first defeat, 24 to 20 in five big games. The city of Bloomington must be rated as the greatest basketball town in the state. With five teams, two universities and three high schools, counting the little city of Normal as a part of Bloomington, the fans never want for excitement during the scholastic year. It would be interesting to see Bloomington high and University high get together but they will not meet unless during the tournament.

The winner of the state tournament ought to come from the Bloomington district. No other district can compare with it in number of strong teams. With Bloomington's three teams, Decatur, Springfield, El Paso, Lexington, Gibson City, Cheno, Atlanta and several others who will probably compete there, such rivalry ought to produce a state winner.

The large number of strong teams in the various districts in the central and northern part of the state has produced a state champion every year so far except when Hillsboro won two years ago. A limited number of good playing floors and a lack of first class teams in consequence in the southern half of the state has so far kept the northern half far ahead.

There are 4 strong teams in this district, Hillsboro, Shelbyville, Paris and Charleston. Shelbyville has managed to beat Hillsboro twice by a total of three points. Paris beat Shelbyville one point and Hillsboro two points and has won a game and lost a game to Charleston. Charleston in turn beat Hillsboro by one point for its eighth successive victory. Charleston attributes its loss last Friday night to playing on Paris' small floor.

Blames Abingdon Floor.
Speaking of small floors with low ceilings, Galesburg blames the Abingdon floor for its defeat Friday last. However, had Boydston of Galesburg been able to throw more than seven out of fifteen foul goals Galesburg might have won as both teams made the same number of field goals and McWilliams of Abingdon threw nine of sixteen fouls, not much of a record at that.

Decatur high is coming strong but the defeat of Peoria Manual was accomplished only after an extra period of five minutes was played. Wilmoth, Decatur's star guard, and Doering, Manual's great guard, were both so badly injured that it will be some time probably before they can get back into form. Doering's injury was partly responsible for the heavy defeat by University high.

In Southern District.
Conditions remain much the same in the southern district. Centalla is still without a peer but the greatest basketball authority of that district, Coach F. G. Warren of University high, Carbondale, believes that Centalla can hardly hope to place high in the state tournament because of lack of stiff competition in that section. He believes that large floors with high ceilings and teams that have a hard grind all season will soon show Centalla up.

Coach Warren ranks the teams of southern Illinois as follows: First group, Centalla; second group, Granite City, Mt. Vernon and University High; third group, Nashville, Benton and Cairo. University High beat Nashville last week, 23 to 19; Mt. Vernon lost to Evansville, Ind., 22 to 16; Benton beat Cairo, 24 to 12 and Anna beat McLeansboro, 20 to 16.

Monmouth at Galesburg.
One of the best games scheduled for tonight is that of Monmouth at Galesburg. Monmouth has defeated Alledo and Kewanee and is going to Galesburg with the determination to wallop last year's champions. The tournament of the northwestern part of the state which will be held at Galesburg, will be one of the classic of the state. With such teams as Abingdon, Monmouth, Alledo, Moline and Rock Island possibly, Carthage and Kewanee entered, the winner can go to the state tourney full of confidence.

Locals Should Win Out.
Not many teams are expected to be entered in the district tournaments at Jacksonville and Peoria. There are no more than two or three first class teams in either of these districts, unless Springfield decides to enter at Jacksonville, the latter should not have much trouble getting through the finals. They beat Griggs-ville by only one point last week, however, and the village school may yet make things interesting. Quincy and Barry are strong contenders in this section.

Peoria Central is expected to win the tournament at Peoria, unless Manual Training improves a great deal. Central High was victorious in the class between these two teams Wednesday night, last.

Rockford high has sent out invitations to forty high schools to participate in the Rockford district tournament. Teams may enter from the counties bounded by McHenry, DeKalb, Lee and Whiteside counties. Some of the better teams in this section are Rockford, Freeport, Galena, Sterling, and Genoa, but as a district it does not compare in teams of high quality like most of the others.

Danville Undeclared.
The logical center for Danville to enter is at Charleston. Danville was idle last week because its coach refused to pay ineligible at Catlin. Danville is yet undeclared but its relative strength is unknown.

Joliet will probably enter the tournament at Elgin. Naperville, Joliet and Elgin seem to be the strongest teams in this section, though Batavia, West Aurora, Geneva, McHenry, Wheaton and Dundee are other strong contestants. Elgin defeated the Woodstock team 35 to 23 Friday night. Elgin's only defeat this season was to Geneva, by a narrow margin. Naperville defeated West Aurora, 49 to 29, recently. Joliet looks stronger since it lost by only three points to the undefeated St. Ignace team, one of the strongest prep teams in Chicago. Joliet had previously defeated Joliet High which is one of the leaders among the Chicago heavyweights, defeating Hyde Park recently.

VIGOROUS BUYING RISES PRICES IN ALL DIRECTIONS

Sentiment Is Decidedly Optimistic and Buying Develops Genuine Bull Market—Investment Buying Continues on Large Scale.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Vigorous buying of stocks and bonds continued today. Prices rose in all directions. Taken in connection with yesterday's advance, it was more like a genuine bull market than any
the street had seen in many months.
Sentiment was decidedly optimistic,
for it was felt that the movement in securities had as a basis the heavy buying.

Investment buying continued on a large scale. It was high grade investment stocks in fact which led the advance.

The advance in the prices of bonds amounted to 1 to 2 points.

There were further evidences today of improvement in the general situation. The syndicate which yesterday purchased New York state's

How to Avoid Those Pains and Distress
Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered.

It is a pity more women do not know of Mother's Friend. Here is a remedy that softens the muscles, enables them to expand without any strain upon the ligaments and enables women to go through maternity without pain, nausea, morning sickness or any of the dreaded symptoms so familiar to many mothers. There is no foolishness in this. The thoughts do not dwell upon pain and suffering, for all such are avoided. Thousands of women no longer resign themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They know better, for in Mother's Friend they have found a wonderful, penetrating remedy to banish all those dreaded experiences. It is a subject every woman should be familiar with, and even though she may not require such a remedy, she will now and then meet some prospective mother to whom a word in time about Mother's Friend will come as a wonderful blessing. This famous remedy is sold by all druggists, and is only $1.00 a bottle. It is for external use only, and is really worth its weight in gold. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 127 Lamer Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a valuable booklet. There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

F. L. SHARPE RETURNS FROM ELKS MEETING IN PEORIA

Arrangements Are Made For Coming State Convention to Be Held in Distillery City.

F. F. Sharpe returned Thursday morning from a meeting of the state executive committee of the Illinois Elks association which was held in Peoria to make arrangements for the coming state convention. It was decided to hold the convention in Peoria in the last week in May, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The meeting was largely attended by prominent Elks from various parts of the state with some of the grand lodge officers present, Charles A. White of Chicago, grand treasurer, being among others.

Mr. Sharpe further reports that many prominent Elks in attendance at that meeting assured him that they would attend the district meeting which is to be held in this city on next Wednesday, January 28. The meeting here will be of the western district which comprises the lodges of Rock Island, Moline, Keokuk, Peoria, Pekin, Galesburg, Maquoket, Macomb, Beardstown, Quincy, Springfield, Litchfield, Canton and Jacksonville.

MI-O-NA A SPECIFIC FOR STOMACH ILLS

You must take precaution against stomach distress. It is dangerous and needless for you to suffer.

A bad taste in the mouth, headache, dizziness, coated tongue, pain in the colon or bowels usually means that you have been eating too much or something that the overloaded and tired digestive organs refuse to handle in the natural way. You should get relief at once.

Mi-o-na Tablets are a sure and safe specific for stomach disorders. Get a fifty cent box today—always keep them in the house—carry them when traveling—take them at the first warning of stomach distress. No more effective remedy is known for stomach ills—and absolutely harmless.

If you have that uncomfortable feeling of fullness, stomach upset, and are irritable and depressed, beware—you are warned—that the stomach and digestive organs are in rebellion. Do not delay. Take Mi-o-na—at once—immediate relief is certain.

If not benefitted Mi-o-na costs nothing. Druggists everywhere.

GIRLS! STOP WASHING THE HAIR WITH SOAP

Soap Dries Your Scalp, Causing Dandruff, Then Hair Falls Out—Try This Next Time.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

Let Vinol Make You Strong.

Run-down conditions are caused by overwork, worry, too close confinement, a chronic cough or cold which it is difficult to cure.

We want to say to every person in this condition—you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil the great strength creator. It will supply iron to the blood in the most easily assimilated form, create healthy appetite, strengthen your digestive organs and make you eat better, sleep better and feel better.

A case has just come to our attention from Racine, Wis. Mrs. W. H. Brill says: "I was in a very bad run-down condition. Life was not worth living. I could not sleep—was nervous and not able to work—and doctors failed to help me, but Vinol did wonders for me. In a short time I was stronger than ever and had gained 22 pounds."

We are confident that Vinol is the best body builder and strength creator we have ever sold. Try a bottle on our guarantee to refund your money if it fails to benefit you.—Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

P. S.—Stop scratching, our Saxo Salve stops itching. We guarantee it.

NEWS NOTES OF THE FARM

Cattle Men at Denver—About fifty corn belt feeders are at Denver, nearly all from Illinois and Iowa. There were about 110 car loads of feeding cattle at the Denver show.

Proper Calf Raising—"Proper calf raising lies at the foundation of the entire dairy industry," says Prof. W. J. Fraser, professor of dairy farming at the University of Illinois. He points out that many Illinois dairymen have been selling their calves without any idea of their efficiency.

1500 Expected at Urbana—Wednesday there were 1,000 farmers studying agriculture at the annual short course at the state agricultural college in Urbana. A. M. Masters of this city is in attendance with four of his tenants, paying all their expenses. Fifteen hundred persons are expected to enroll before the end of the week.

Market More Active—A change to colder temperature made the cattle market more active and sellers were in the alleys asking strong prices for all classes of stuff. The supply of cattle Wednesday was placed at 16,000 at the Chicago yards, while the total run in the principal markets was estimated at 30,700. There was a fair demand for all sorts of steers at the outset and butcher stuff was wanted.

Farm Hands Have Good Music—On the Ingerside Farm of the Detroit Creamery Co., the farm hands purchased a small phonograph. For a few dollars from each one they have secured a wonderful range of music, varying from the latest dances to the best of the world known. Previously the men went to bed as early as six-thirty or went to town and spent their money. Now they are entertained at home by the best music. At 3 o'clock in the morning the men are awakened by Sousa's band or Victor Herbert's orchestra. On Sunday morning they are awakened by the strains of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," or some other sacred song. They have several selections suitable for the day.

They never tire of the music as new records are constantly being added and many selections are of the kind that never grow stale. Men of different nationalities have the favorite songs of their country. There is always appropriate music for holidays purchased by different members of the crew to surprise the owners. Could this idea prompt the owners of large farms to make Christmas presents to their men? Think of the results it would bring—Breeder's Gazette.

To Be Happy, Keep Busy—Statistics show that there is less cruelty and crime among rural boys and girls than there is among the city's population. There is some reason for this, to be sure. One reason is plain, and that is that the boys and girls on the farm are healthier and purer minded, and less thought is given to the low and degrading things in life—the things that breed crime and evil deeds. They are busy, they have less time to plan trickery and crime, they have healthy bodies and likewise healthy minds. But the very chief reason that rural boys and girls are not cruel is that from infancy they have been placed close to animal life and have, we might say, grown up with them. Often the very first plaything of the country child is a pet dog, a cat or other household pet; and as the years come they are given a calf, a colt, a sheep or some other animal of the farm's production.

Nothing is more needed in the child's life than the realization of possession. Note even the small babe how he clings to an old tattered and torn doll, simply because it was the first of his possessions. The knowledge or realization of ownership is the greatest factor in developing manhood or womanhood. No boy or girl should be denied the privilege of ownership—Farmer's Guide.

All Boys Cannot Stay on the Farm—It is not possible for the farm lands of the United States to provide employment for all the boys raised on the farm, nor for the husbands of all the girls raised on the farm. As the art and science of agriculture advance we will have fewer farms comparatively, and better ones. Horses have already largely taken the place of men on the farm. The gasoline engine may take the place of the horses to a large extent, and still further reduce the number of men.

Farming is becoming specialized. We have known many men who were good grain raisers, who were not fit to handle stock. We have known men who were fit to handle stock who could not successfully nor profitably grow the grain to feed them. We have known men who were good dairymen, but seemed to be poison to horses. We have known men who could feed hogs successfully, but were not fit to handle sheep. These men account for it by saying they have no "luck" with the things they don't like, forgetting that luck is about nine-tenths work and management, and one-tenth chance—or shall we say Providence.

Therefore, study your boys; and study your proposed son-in-law. It is your business to develop your children bodily, mentally and spiritually. Having done this, and seen them settled in life, your work is mainly done. You make a very great mistake, therefore, if you neglect this main part of your work.

Don't spoil their taste for farm life and farming by making them mere drudges, and spoil them from anything else by insisting on their staying on the farm when they don't like it. Really, this is the big thing in life, and therefore it is exceedingly important and that the boys and girls are started in some line in which, with proper industry, they will prove successful and be happy.—Wallace Farmer.

will last through today. If no students fail in their studies, there will be about forty go from the 8th grade to the Freshman class. This will make an enrollment in the high school of about 404. The number for the high school would probably have been smaller than the average had it not been this year for the 60 or 70 tuition pupils which came in last fall. The extra pupils will perhaps necessitate holding classes earlier and later in the day.

WILL START MOVE TO INTEREST WOMEN IN ILLINOIS CENTENNIAL

Mrs. Jessie Palmer Weber, Secretary, Hopes to Make Them Feel a Responsibility in Helping Show What State Has Done.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—Mrs.
Jessie Palmer Weber, secretary of the Illinois Centennial Commission, will start at once a movement to interest every woman in the state of Illinois in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the admission of Illinois to statehood, which will be celebrated on a mammoth scale in 1918.

It is the hope of Mrs. Weber to interest every woman teacher, every member of the women's clubs, every historical and patriotic society, the mothers' clubs of the schools, the Young Women's Christian associations, women of the trade unions, and in fact, to make the women of the state, whether they are active or adopted daughters of Illinois, to feel an interest, a responsibility and a pride in helping to show to the world what the state has done, and especially, the women of the state, in the one hundred years of its existence as a state.

"The women of the clubs can collect the relics of pioneer life for the exposition which it is hoped will be a prominent feature of the celebration," said Mrs. Weber, discussing her plans. "It is expected that the growth of everything in use in the home will be shown. The growth of the cook stove from the Dutch oven to the electric range will be shown. The looms and spinning wheels and carding machines of the pioneer mothers will be shown, and the home made products will be displayed with the fine table linen, blankets, comforts, and clothing of today.

"The development of house furniture will be displayed and the host like cradles which our grandmothers kept in motion with their feet, while their busy hands sewed or knit, will be exhibited with the latest ball bearing wheeled baby tenders used today for the modern youngsters to sleep out of doors.

"These are some of the things that can be best done by women. Loan exhibits in the different towns can be held under the auspices of clubs or associations and through these exhibits information can be obtained as to where the best specimens of such historical relics may be found.

"The work of Illinois women authors, painters, sculptors and musical composers and inventors will be collected and exhibited. Of course, this will be but a division of an exhibit of such work by all Illi-noisians, men as well as women.

"It is not meant by this that the work of the women of the state will be confined to showing what has been done by women, but this is one branch of the work which can best be done by them.

"The committee will consult the women's associations of the state and a plan will be mapped out for the work. The chairman of the committee will be glad to receive suggestions.

"A book containing the life stories of pioneer women of the state will be published.
"The women of today are invited and urged to help."

There were thirty members present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. After a short business session, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Miller gave a talk and Miss Stella Shuff and Miss Sue Fox, gave a one act drama, which was a source of much pleasure to the company. Some delicious refreshments were served.
